the crescent moon illustrated rabindranath tagore in the crescent moon rabindranath tagore brings alive the world of a child in some poems he describes the simple joys of children at play while in others he feels the bonds of affection between mother and child and in yet others he expresses wonder at the earthly beauty all around us also included here are some of his most thought provoking stories with themes that are relevant for children in the kabuliwalla little minnie becomes friendly with a burly afghan man but will she remember him when he returns after many years the parrot s tale is an allegory about the perils of the modern system of education and the kingdom of cards set in a fantasy land of cards is a powerful statement against the stifling of freedom of any kind

i paced alone on the road across the field while the sunset was hiding its last gold like a miser the daylight sank deeper and deeper into the darkness and the widowed land whose harvest had been reaped lay silent suddenly a boy s shrill voice rose into the sky he traversed the dark unseen leaving the track of his song across the hush of the evening his village home lay there at the end of the waste land beyond the sugar cane field hidden among the shadows of the banana and the slender areca palm the cocoa nut and the dark green jack fruit trees i stopped for a moment in my lonely way under the starlight and saw spread before me the darkened earth surrounding with her arms countless homes furnished with cradles and beds mothers hearts and evening lamps and young lives glad with a gladness that knows nothing of its value for the world
