the majority of American churches are stalled or in decline. Church Come Forth is a strategic model for renewing and revitalizing plateaued and dying churches into prevailing and growing congregations. Todd Hudnall combines biblical insights, church revitalization research, and his experience as a turnaround pastor to provide a guidebook for transformation. It is God's desire to renew His church, and most church leaders will find this plan a God-send in effectively revitalizing their congregations. Steve Pike, director of the Church Multiplication Network, says three words came to mind when I read Church Come Forth by Todd Hudnall: biblical, practical, real. Biblical: a book about God's church would be useless if not filled with wisdom from God's book. Hudnall carefully makes the biblical case for revitalization, unpacking Scripture after Scripture to lay a firm foundation for why and how a drifting church can once again join God on His mission. Practical: Todd Hudnall is a seasoned and successful practitioner whose walk aligns with his talk. His counsel is based on the best research and his actual experience of applying that research. As a result, Church Come Forth is loaded with great advice that is tried and true. Real: Todd's honesty about his personal growing pains is refreshing. His diverse experience in churches, small and large, makes his counsel relatable to every pastor. He writes as a pastor friend writing to a pastor friend. Church Come Forth is a must-read for every leader of a plateaued or declining church.

Mittelberg presents a proven process for raising the value of evangelism in your heart and in your church. He spells out strategies for training all of a church's members to naturally communicate their faith and offers ideas for initiating outreach ministries and events. Includes inspiring stories of lives and churches that have been changed as a result of these practical biblical approaches.

Pain in the Church is a straight-forward overview of the heavenly Father living with mankind through the blood atonement of Jesus. As the Holy Spirit teaches, we can find many things hindering the whole working together, yet there is victory within the church. As we learn these lessons, suffering the pain and overcoming all obstacles, we do not have to throw away any soul that wants to serve Jesus with a true heart. It shows that if we refuse to deal with this pain, the sores just get worse until division and separation occurs. Following the examples laid out before us, we can admit it, quit it, and move on, loving Jesus and each other. This book reveals awesome insights to inspire any one hurt by the church to defeat the wrong self and outside influences. What is purposed within these pages will let us see there is not a perfect church, but there should always be peace, hope, and happiness inside. We can enjoy our time in this journey with Jesus and love the life we have. After all, pain in the church should never be acceptable. When most people see a book like this, they seldom recognize its true value. There is so much information within these pages that all questions you would have about a relationship with God should be answered. You can find Jesus here and learn how not to spend so much of your time hurting others. Learn to please Him, and you will fulfill all the commandments. May God bless.

This dissertation researches the identities of Chinese Christians in West Malaysia who are members of the Lutheran Church in Malaysia (LCM). Most of them are first-generation Christians and have turned from Chinese religious and secular backgrounds to the Christian faith. The focus is on the expression of their denominational identities compared with the identity of the LCM as expressed in official statements of the church or in Lutheran theology. The sociological, psychological, and theological foundations of Lutheran identity provide the theoretical framework within which the individual identities of these members and LCM's communal identity are examined. These foundations include biblical, historical, and contemporary theological concepts from Asia.
