for ten years of my life from age five to age fifteen my brother who was three my sister who was a baby and i were placed in foster care it s sad but true i was an abused child some would even say i was a tortured child i woke up it was dark and i thought to myself is this a dream did i cry myself to sleep did i lose consciousness because i m in this basement on a concrete floor in a small closet with a lot of tools and bugs and the door is locked i can t get out this was not like all the other punishments this one was different no i don t want you to do that to me i m only ten years old you know i ve been watching you all this time didn t you see me looking at you sometimes then he put his hands on me that s when my whole life changed i lived in fear not knowing who or what was going to happen to me next it was scary to me everything that happened to me at this young age left me with a very low self esteem i felt very ugly i had no confidence in myself i didn t even love myself i didn t believe in myself i felt worthless and i felt that nobody really truly cared about me this is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance that christ jesus came into the world to save sinners 1 timothy 1 15 when dwight l moody preached in new york in the late 1870s thousands gathered to hear him proclaim the gospel of jesus christ to the masses out of those meetings came the faithful saying this collection of wonderful powerful sermons with warmth urgency and simplicity moody calls believers to repentance deeper faith and personal revival he reminds us that god chooses the weak to confound the mighty that he honors the faith of his people and that courage and wholehearted service are essential for anyone called to work in his vineyard the faithful saying overflows with encouragement for every christian who longs to see true revival in the heart in the home and in the world its message is as powerful today as when moody first delivered it to the crowds of new york for god has chosen the foolish things of the world to shame the wise and god has chosen the weak things of the world to shame the things which are strong and the base things of the world and the despised god has chosen the things that are not so that he may nullify the things that are so that no man may boast before god 1 corinthians 1 27 29
